

ABBY LEIGH

ABOUT

Abby Leigh is an artist based in New York City. Her work is held in public collections including the Museum of Modern Art; the Whitney Museum of American Art; the Guggenheim Museum, New York; the Metropolitan Museum of Art; The Hammer Museum; and the Houston Museum of Fine Arts; among others.

ARTIST STATEMENT

While my work varies stylistically, my way of looking does not: I have very little depth perception. I see a layered world with flat, sometimes ambiguous, space. In keeping with such, I work in layers—be it layers of paint, of smoke, of graphite or peach pit soot, of whatever the work in front of me seems to demand. I start an abstract work randomly: making a mark with an axe, an eye dropper filled with sumi ink, or a line of smoke and I suddenly have somewhere to go. In my sledgehammer works, I work the surface until the markings form a coherent visual explanation to me. Often I return to the same surface and I rework it, sledgehammering, axing, sanding, buffing, scrubbing, erasing, adding, or subtracting.
